PROFILE

Product and operations professional grounded in user research and structured problem-solving, proven through two hackathon wins built entirely on field research and rapid iteration. Builds with AI as a core part of the workflow: shipped a live fintech platform in four weeks as sole PM using Claude, Anthropic API, Replit, and Antigravity for research synthesis, prototyping, and delivery. MSc Information Systems Management, University of Galway. Available immediately.

EDUCATION & HACKATHONS

MSc Information Systems Management | University of Galway, Ireland Sep 2025 – Jun 2026

- 1st Place, Empathy Jam 2025 Galway (Genesys) - ran open-ended field research on Galway's streets, scrapped the initial concept after user testing exposed a flaw, and rebuilt from a single resident's insight in the final hours to win.
- 3rd Place, Wayfinder Hackathon Dublin - co-designed an accessible transport solution directly with users with disabilities, translating lived experience into a working prototype through iterative testing
- Modules: Agile Project Management, Business Analytics, Database Systems, Applied Systems Analysis, Enterprise Systems

Bachelor of Computer Applications (BCA) | SCSIT, DAVV, Indore — CGPA 7.6 Sep 2022 – May 2025

EXPERIENCE

Product Lead | VERDIQ (Fintech Platform) — Independent Project Feb – Mar 2026

- Owned the full product lifecycle for a live fintech platform: scoped the problem through competitive and user research, prioritised features, and drove delivery to deployment. Live: verdiq-know-what-you-do.vercel.app
- Used Claude, Anthropic API, Replit, and Antigravity throughout the build — structuring research across 8 fintech products, drafting scoring logic, and accelerating prototyping cycles
- Structured delivery in Jira across 3 sprints, 4 epics, 20+ user stories; unblocked the engineering partner daily to hit every milestone

Web Developer & Project Lead | Egano Services — Freelance Client Project Apr – Jun 2026

- Led end-to-end delivery from requirements through deployment and handover — Services | Egano Services Pvt Ltd
- Managed stakeholder communication, scope changes, and delivery milestones independently

Web Developer & Project Lead | Clarity Point Consultancy — Freelance Project (USA) Aug – Oct 2025

- Translated client business requirements into a structured project plan through direct stakeholder discussions
- Built and deployed on WordPress and Hostinger, refining structure across multiple client feedback rounds — claritypointconsultancy.com
